

New Moon in Sagittarius

The Gypsies Moon

The Sagittarius Moon is time for your inner wanderer to be set free and allowed to explore. This is the luckiest of the New Moons, making it the best time to expose yourself to new experiences, opportunities, and possibilities. Get out into the world and experience as much as possible.

This is not a time of processing, it is a time of happening. And only later after much time to deliberate will you find the spiritual purpose and string it all together into meaningful form.

What the Gypsy Moons freedom can do for us is priceless. We go out into the world to view life outside of our homes, ourselves, our cultures, and especially our biases. Once we have these open hearted moments, with others that may be unlike ourselves, we can confront ourselves and grow from it.

'Tell me what it is your plan to do with you're one wild and precious life' - Mary Oliver

This New Moon we surrender to the world, to those around us, to the random invitations and opportunities. We sit outside, breathe deeply, and pray to the Gods and Goddesses, to Grandmama Moon, to Mother Earth to guide us and show us what more we can have and experience in this life.

New Moon in Saggie Ceremony

Grab your pen and journal, a blanket, a couple of candles, and even a light of some kind if you can manage.

Set out to a place you have NEVER been before. Do not choose somewhere familiar and comfortable.

Set yourself up under the night sky. Sit or lie down comfortably and fall into your body.

Breathe in the world around you. Close your eyes and feel the air moving through mouth, nose, and lungs and spirit.

Begin to dream of new experiences. Ones you have always wanted to have. And expand your mind to ones you've never considered, and ones you don't even know if they quite exist.

(ie. Astral travel to other planets, world travel, sitting in ceremony with different cultural..)

Spend as much time here as you can spare. Allow your mind to wander with passion.

Send out a prayer, a wish, an intention, to be open, to be available, to be invited and to be given opportunities to have these experiences.

Send out a prayer to Grandmama Moon to send you dreams of experiences you haven't thought of yet. Ask that they be tailored to you, for the exact growth you need, and then the exact growth you want.

Ask for everything you don't know you need, but crave deep within yourself.

Arise and write. Everything you saw, everything you dream of, everything that came to you.

Finish with a prayer of thanks.

'Grandmother Moon, thank you for always being above me, showing me and guiding through this precious life. Thank you for shining light on my darkness, thank you for assisting in my processing, and in my growth. You are forever loved, admired and appreciated. '
